New Shooting Range.

Ringgold, Ga., Jan. 31 .- The government is going to establish a shooting range about 4 miles east of Ringgold and adjacent to Catoosa Springs, which is now owned by General Baldwin. They have leased the lands belonging to Mrs. Fannie Harris, W. M. Fain and B. F. Harris, and will later make it permanent. This, it is thought, will greatly help this part of the country, as well as encourage the new electrie rallway which is now being surveyed from Rossville, Ga., via the Natoosa Springs and other points.

14,000 Acres of Timber Sold.

Valdosta, Go., Jan. 31.—The large milling interests of the Buffalo Yellow Pine company, at Haylow, Ga., have been sold to D. F. Aldrich, of New York, who will erect a large mill on the site of the one burned nearly a year ago. The deal was made this week by J. D. Rounds, of the Buffale company, and includes about 11,000 acres of timber. This leaves the latter company with only about 3,000 this paper who will write to the Thacher acres left in this section.
